

Compound Predicate

Name _____ Date _____

A compound predicate is two or more verbs used with one subject.

We ate hamburgers and drank lemonade.

compound predicate

Underline the compound predicate.

1. The class worked hard and earned money for the trip.
2. Mom and Dad planted the seeds and watered the garden.
3. I listened to the music and tapped my foot.
4. My grandmother went to the store and bought some milk.
5. We fished all day and told stories around the campfire at night.
6. The mouse scampered across the floor and hid.
7. Ted kicked the ball and ran to first base.
8. Len opened the letter and read it.

Write a compound predicate to complete each sentence.

9. The farmer grew wheat and sold it.
10. The circus clown _____
11. Yesterday, I _____
12. At the library, I _____
13. The soccer player _____